TASKFORCE WORK PROCESS

- Research on leading practices in accreditation across professions and within the current system.
- A systemic and holistic examination; 7 parallel workgroups each with defined goals, efficient communication, and a clear structure.
- Synchronous integration meetings to include every stakeholder's perspective so that the process left no one behind.
- Adopted a continuous improvement mindset; choose what to do now, what to continue refining.

ICF COACH TRAINING MOVING FORWARD

Establish ICF as the standard-bearer for excellence. Excellence means:

- Effective learning and development occur;
- Sustaining adoption of learning results;
- Attractive support for providers is consistent; and
- Evidence collected and reported that providers deliver the value promised to students, and therefore the consumers of coaching services.

Lead the way for the education and training of coaching capability as a progressive experience of human development.

Support all consumers of coaching to consistently experience unparalleled quality and professionalism when engaged with coaches trained through ICF accredited curriculum and providers.
