Emerging Coaching Catalyst

The Emerging Coaching Catalyst subcategory of the ICF Coaching Impact Awards – Social Impact category aims to recognize and elevate the efforts of social impact organizations that have been doing outstanding work but remain relatively unknown to the public. This subcategory will highlight individuals/organizations that meet the following criteria:

- a. Social Impact: Demonstrated commitment to addressing any of the UN Sustainable Development Goals and/or critical societal challenges.
- b. Coaching Approach: Utilization of coaching principles and methodologies to drive meaningful change, foster personal growth, and empower the communities they serve. Ability to demonstrate impact on society/community.
- c. Scalability and Replicability: A potential for the organization's model or approach to be scaled up and applied to other contexts for greater positive impact.
- d. Sustainable Vision: A clear and viable long-term vision for continued growth and sustained impact within their chosen field. Share impact and learnings on society/community.

Catalyst for Social Impact

The Social Impact category is aimed at recognizing exceptional individuals and/or organizations that are making profound contributions to society through the application of coaching principles. This innovative category goes beyond conventional recognition, diving into the heart of social impact, and celebrates those who have harnessed the coaching mindset to create lasting positive change.

Two Distinct Subcategories:

- Distinguished Coaching Catalyst: Influential world leaders and organizations who are a catalyst for change and who exemplify a coaching mindset in their approach to leadership, decision-making, and engagement with others.
- Emerging Coaching Catalyst: Social impact leaders and organizations that have been doing outstanding work but lack widespread recognition and remain relatively unknown to the public.

Select those attributes that best represent the difference the nominee is making in social impact with coaching principles:

- Goal 1. End poverty in all its forms everywhere
- Goal 2. End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture
- Goal 3. Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages
- Goal 4. Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all
- Goal 5. Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls
- Goal 6. Ensure availability and sustainable management of water and sanitation for all
- Goal 7. Ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable and modern energy for all
- Goal 8. Promote sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all
- Goal 9. Build resilient infrastructure, promote inclusive and sustainable industrialization and foster innovation
- Goal 10. Reduce inequality within and among countries

Description of Social Impact:

350 words

Please provide a detailed description of how coaching has contributed to social impact within your chosen attributes. Include information about the goals, strategies, and outcomes of your coaching initiatives.

(Maximum 350 words)

A coaching mindset encompasses an array of strategies and principles aimed at fostering growth and development. It entails active listening, posing powerful questions, and nurturing self-discovery and accountability. While these components are central, there exist numerous potential applications influenced by context and preferences. Embracing a coaching mindset invites continual exploration and adaptation, enhancing self-awareness, communication, and personal and professional growth.
