

Start Your Coaching Journey as an Associate Certified Coach (ACC)

Invest in Your Future: Earn Your ICF ACC Credential

The coaching profession is experiencing rapid growth, leading to an increasing number of individuals identifying as “coaches.” Obtaining an International Coaching Federation (ICF) Credential offers the legitimacy and credibility needed for professional coaches to set themselves apart in a crowded marketplace.

The ICF Associate Certified Coach (ACC) credential demonstrates your fundamental knowledge and skills in the ICF Core Competencies and Code of Ethics. The ACC shows your clients that you are a credible, competent coach, ready to support them to achieve their full potential. The ACC is a smart step for any coach practitioner – from coaches at the beginning of their career journey to established professionals who understand the value of incorporating a coaching approach to their practice.

ICF represents the gold standard in the coaching industry. And why would I settle for less? It puts a stamp of credibility, of professionalism, of confidence on my coaching practice.

— Folake Oluwole, ACC

Clients Value Education

Why Choose the ICF ACC Credential?

Credibility:

Gain instant credibility and trust with clients and organizations alike. The ACC verifies your skills as an effective coach practitioner and demonstrates your commitment to excellence in professional and ethical practice.

Global Recognition:

Join a prestigious community of coaches recognized worldwide for their expertise and professionalism. The ACC opens doors to unlimited international opportunities.

Professional Development:

ACC credentialed coaches commit to continuous professional development to maintain their certification. The ACC provides an important career pathway to grow as a coach practitioner.

Marketability:

ACC credential-holders stand out in a competitive market and attract high-value clients. The ACC distinguishes coaches who have verified coaching knowledge, skills and experience.

The ICF credential has helped me in my personal growth and development, strengthening my skills and gaining recognition. This is how I strengthen myself to accompany other people in their own processes of personal and professional growth.

— Myriam De Lourdes Martinez, ACC
