

You've Led with Purpose.

Now Coach with Impact

Turn your military leadership experience into a new opportunity for impact.

The skills you developed through service — leadership, communication, and trust — are the same skills coaching demands.

Professional coaches help people, teams, and organizations navigate challenges, achieve goals, and grow. With an ICF credential, you can demonstrate your commitment to coaching excellence and globally recognized professional standards.

GI Bill Benefits May Help Cover Credential Costs

Eligible U.S. veterans may receive reimbursement of up to $2,000 per approved ICF credential through the GI Bill — even if already receiving other education benefits.*

Benefits may support:

- Applications for ICF ACC and PCC credentials and exams.
- Professional coaching pathways to the Associate Certified Coach (ACC) and the Professional Certified Coach (PCC) credentials.

Approved by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for GI Bill Reimbursement Eligibility.

Continue Your Impact

The leadership skills you developed through military service can create value long after your active duty ends.

Credentials Eligible for GI Bill Reimbursement

- ✓ Associate Certified Coach (ACC)
Build a strong foundation in professional coaching.
- ✓ Professional Certified Coach (PCC)
Deepen your expertise and expand your impact.

85%

Coaching Clients Value Credentials

An ICF credential demonstrates your commitment to coaching excellence, ethical practice, and professional standards recognized worldwide. Plus, 85% of coaching clients value credentials when selecting a coach.

Source: ICF Global Consumer Awareness Study

Need more information? Try these helpful links.

Documents and Information Needed: How To Apply For The GI Bill and Related Benefits | Veterans Affairs

Requesting GI Bill Reimbursement for Certification: Licensing & Certification Tests and Prep Courses | Veterans Affairs

Learn About: VA Education Benefit Rates

For Questions, Contact:

coachingfederation.org/credentialing
support@coachingfederation.org

SCAN HERE